Preface

The secondary curriculum has been revised in the light of National Education Policy 2010, which emphasises learning English as an international language for communicating locally and globally. The 'English For Today' textbooks have been developed to help students attain competency in all four language skills, i.e. listening, speaking, reading and writing.

The development of curriculum, syllabus and textbook is a continuous process. In continuation of it, this book has been developed and rationally evaluated by a group of experts, which included curriculum specialists, subject specialists, teacher trainers and classroom teachers. The contents and illustrations of this book have been developed on order to suit the learners' age and cognitive level. In this book effective communicative approach and techniques integrated with existing traditional methods have been introduced. The book emphasizes practicing language skills through a variety of meaningful and enjoyable activities.

The publication of teacher's guide is under process. The teacher's guide will help teacher plan the lessons more effectively and teach students communicatively through teaching learning activities.

My heartfelt gratitude goes to the curriculum developers, writers, illustrators and coordinator who worked under tremendous time constraints. Without their sincerity, commitment and hard work, it would not been possible for NCTB to develop the English textbook 'English For Today', making it available to teacher and students all over the country by January 2013. As the textbook was developed within a very limited time, there is room for further development. Attempts have been taken to make the book error free as far as possible. Any constructive suggestion for the improvement of the textbook will be welcomed and incorporated in future editions.

I also sincerely thank all involved in the production and publication of this textbook. If used properly, the textbook will no doubt facilitate learning English at the desired level.

"Don't be sad, Farabi, and don't think seriously about what your friend Harun did. ... I know a story about friends. Listen."

Two friends were walking through a desert. After a while they had a quarrel, and one friend slapped the other in the face. The friend who got slapped was hurt. But without saying anything he wrote in the sand:

Today my best friend slapped me in the face.

They kept walking until they found an oasis. There they decided to take a bath. The one who was slapped before got stuck in the quicksand and started going down, but his friend saved him. After he was saved he wrote on a stone:

Today my best friend saved my life.

The friend who slapped and saved his best friend asked, “After I hurt you, you wrote in the sand and now you write on a stone . Why?”

The other friend replied, “When someone hurts us, we should write it down in the sand. The wind can erase it away. But when someone does something good for us, we should engrave it on stone, so no wind can erase it.”

“Do you know the moral of the story?” Flora asked.

Farabi nodded and smiled, “Yes, we should forget our hurts, but remember our good deeds forever.”

A Read about Ms Shahana Huda.

Shahana's husband Mr Zamil Huda works in a company office. His firm has a vacant position. On several days he told Shahana, "I want you to apply for the post." But Shahana said, "Please don't insist. I'm joining the local high school as a teacher." "What do you find in a teaching job, Shahana? I don't want you to do it". Her in-laws were also on his side. Yet Shahana joined the school against the will of the family.

Weeks, months went by. Every day Shahana helps with the household work. Every day she works hard to prepare her lessons. Every day she goes to school, teaches her students and helps both weak and bright ones. They often come to her in the teachers' room, in the corridor and even on the road, and talk to her about any academic or personal problems.

Within a year Shahana becomes a very good teacher. Students give her salam wherever they see her. Teachers, even the Headteacher, admire her. Parents and other people in the community come to see her at home and at the school and pay her great respect.

One day her husband said, "You've opened my eyes, Shahana. Teaching is more than a job. I didn't know it. Congratulations!"

"Thank you," she smiled.

"Tell me Shahana, how you could be such a great teacher!" Zamil wanted to know.

Whose child is this?

“Whose child is this?” I asked one day
Seeing a little one out at play.

“Mine”, said the parent with a tender smile.

“Mine to keep a little while
To bathe his hands and comb his hair,
To tell him what he is to wear,

To prepare him that he may always be good
And each day do the things he should.”

“Whose child is this?” I asked again,
As the door opened and someone came in “Mine,” said the teacher with the same tender smile.

“Mine,” to keep just for a little while,
To teach him how to be gentle and kind,
To train and direct his dear little mind,
To help him live by every rule
And get the best he can from school.”

“Whose child is this?” I ask once more,
Just as the little one entered the door.

“Ours”, said the parent and the teacher as they smiled,
And each took the hand of the little child.

“Ours to love and train together
Ours this blessed task forever.”

Lesson 4: Fixed-price Shop

Key words : stationary bargain haggle offer agree on

A Look at the shop and answer these questions.

- 1 What kinds of things do you find in the shop?
- 2 What are the students doing?
- 3 Who is the shopkeeper?

B Read the text and answer the following questions.

Ms Shahana Huda is talking to the students about a new kind of shop.

Shahana: You can buy any stationery items here like pens, pencils, notebooks, coloured paper, in fact everything you need, for writing and drawing. You can also buy some food items like biscuits, buns, bananas, bottles of mineral water and some other necessary things. You can also buy your school uniform and other clothes. There are a number of benefits of this shop. You don't have to bargain or haggle with the shopkeeper over the prices of anything.

Hridoy: What is bargain or haggle, teacher?

Shahana: Suppose you want to buy a shirt or a dress in a shop in the market. You ask, "How much is this?" The shopkeeper says, "300 taka." But in many cases, this price is more than the real price. So you offer 200 taka or even less. The shopkeeper says, "No, I can't sell it for 200 taka." Then you offer 225 taka and he may still say, "No, it'll be a loss for me."

This process of asking for and offering more and less money is called 'bargaining' or 'haggling'. It goes on until you both (buyer and seller) agree on a price, say 250 taka in this case. This price is acceptable to both of you.

Sazia: If there is no bargaining, how are we going to buy things?

Shahana: You don't need to bargain. It will be a fixed-price shop?

Questions

- 1 Do you go shopping? Where is the shop?
- 2 What do you usually buy?
- 3 Do you bargain? Why do you do that?
- 4 Do you know about a 'Fixed-Price' shop? Where is it? What does it sell?

Lesson 5: Morality Shop

Shahana: Today I'm going to tell you about a new kind of shop, where there will be no shopkeeper. The price of each item or thing will be written on a small piece of paper. This price tag will be attached to the item or items. You will pick an item you like, look at the price tag and put the money in the box kept there. And the thing is now yours.

Sheela: In that case, someone may take a thing and go away without paying.

Shahana: Nobody will do it. If anybody does, it will be stealing.

Ratul: Who'll see them stealing?

Shahana: Conscience. Do you know what conscience is? OK. There is something in your mind called conscience. It tells you whether your actions are right or wrong. Is stealing a right thing or a wrong thing?

Students: Wrong thing.

Shahana: Then your conscience will tell you, "This is a wrong thing. You must not do it." If you steal or do a bad thing, your conscience will prick you and trouble you. And you will never have your peace of mind. So to be a good and happy person, you should have a clear conscience.

Joynul was trembling in anger.

“The cooking is almost done. Wash your hands and feet. I’ll bring the food soon,” she said.

“Soon! It will take ages!” Joynul shouted wildly.

“What do you do the whole day at home? I work and earn money to run the family. You can’t even cook my meals in time!”

“I don’t earn money, but I also run the family. I do all the work at home cooking, cleaning, washing, husking, taking care of the children- everything, said Nazma. “Remember, you work for money and my work in the home can make the family stick together and make it happy. Dear Hridoy

Thank you for your letter of 1st May. It gives us such an exciting piece of news! I cannot still believe that there could be a shop without a shopkeeper. I told about it to my relatives, friends, classmates and, of course, my teacher, Miss Nishat. Everybody was surprised. Miss Nishat likes the idea so much that she immediately talked about it to our Headteacher. We had already a meeting in our school with teachers and students. At the beginning of the meeting, the Headteacher asked me to talk about the Morality Shop in your school. At first I read out part of your letter and then I explained how such a shop in your school is greatly helping you—students, teachers and the community at large. The Headteacher was quite positive about the usefulness of such a shop. He formed a committee with Miss Nishat and two other teachers and some senior students to draw up a plan for opening a morality shop in our school. Isn't it great? You will be glad to know that I am on the committee too.

I'm coming to see your Morality Shop with a friend of mine next weekend. See you then. Give my regards to Aunt and Uncle.
All the best.

Lesson 11: A hospital window

Key words : vivid overlook view skyline in detail

A Read aloud the story about a hospital window and think about the questions.

Two sick men were given the same room in a hospital. One man could sit up in his bed for about an hour. His bed was next to the room's only window. The other man spent all his time lying on his bed opposite the window. The men talked for hours almost every day. They talked about their wives and children, their homes, their jobs and almost about everything.

Q1 Can you guess why they talk about all these things?

E

Every afternoon the man in the bed by the window would sit up and talk to his roommate about all the things he could see outside the window.

The man on the other bed eagerly waited for this speaking and listening time. His friend's vivid descriptions of passing things seen through the window inspired him to live.

Q2 Can you guess what the man near the window talked about to his friend?

The window overlooked a park with a lovely lake. Ducks and swans play on the water, while children float their paper boats. A wonderful view of the skyline can be seen in the distance.

The man by the window told his friend all this in detail. The listener would close his eyes and see everything in his mind's eye.

Q3 What would the listener feel and do if one day his friend could not sit up and talk?

Days and weeks passed. One morning the doctor came to the room on his daily round. He found the lifeless body of the man by the window. He died peacefully in his sleep. The doctor made all the arrangements to take the body away.

The sad friend wanted to move to the empty bed next to the window. The doctor allowed him.

On his new bed the man painfully propped himself up. He was very excited. He slowly looked through the window to see the real world outside. What did he see?

Q4 Can you guess what he saw?

The window just faced a blank wall. He asked the doctor, “Doctor, I see nothing but a blank wall. How could my friend described so many wonderful things outside the window?”

The doctor replied, “Did he? The man was completely blind !”

B Discuss in groups and write an answer to this question:

Everybody felt relaxed. They were talking, laughing and joking. The children's voices were the loudest. Jahid described how he played for his school in the Upazila Inter-School Tournament.

“What sports do you take part in, Zishan?” asked Jahid. Zishan could not answer. There was no playground in his school and around his house. Shima also told them how she won the first prize for 100 metre sprint in her school annual sports. She sang a beautiful Bhawaiya. Everybody clapped their hands in delight.

B Read the story silently.

Shima's grandfather was telling the story of the Selfish Giant in the family gathering. Grandma refused to go to bed. She forgot her back pain.

The Selfish Giant

It was a large lovely garden, with soft green grass. Here and there over the grass stood beautiful flowers. Also there were fruit trees around the garden.

One day the Giant came back. He went to see his friend in a distant land and stayed with them for seven years. When he arrived he saw children playing in his garden.

“What are you doing here?” cried the Giant in a very gruff voice. The children ran away.

Every afternoon the children came back from school and used to go and play in the Giant's garden.

“My own garden is my own garden,” said the Giant. “Anyone can understand that. And I will allow nobody to play in it.” So he built a high wall all round the garden and put up a notice board.

TRESPASSERS WILL BE PUNISHED

C Discuss in groups and answer this question:

Q 1 What do you think the children would do now?

Then came the spring. And all over the country there were flowers and there were birds. Only in the garden of the Giant it was still winter. Here there were no birds singing, no flowers blossoming. There were only snow and frost and north wind in it.

“I cannot understand why the spring is so late in coming,” said the Giant. He was sitting at the window of his big castle and looking out at his cold, dry, lifeless garden. “I hope there will be a change in the weather.”

But neither spring nor summer came to his garden.

B Discuss in groups and write an answer to this question:

What happens in a garden in winter?

C Suppose you are one of the children who were not allowed to play in the Giant’s garden. In this situation:

Lesson 10: The Selfish Giant (3)

Key words : perfume sight twitter

A Continue reading the story.

One morning the Giant was lying awake in bed when he heard some lovely music. It was so sweet to his ears that he thought it must be the King’s musicians passing by. But in fact it was only a little bird singing outside his window. Then the north wind stopped and a delicious perfume came to him through the open window. "I believe the spring has come at last," said the Giant. He jumped out of bed and looked out. What did he see?

He saw the most wonderful sight. Through a little hole in the wall the children crept in and they were sitting in the branches of the trees. In every tree there was a little child. And the trees were so delighted to have the children back again that they covered themselves with blossoms. They were waving their arms gently above the children's heads. The birds were flying about and twittering delightfully. The flowers were looking up through the green grass and laughing.

But only in one corner of the garden it was still winter. There under a tree a little boy was standing alone crying. He was so small that he could not reach up to the branches of the tree. The poor tree was still covered with snow, and the north wind was blowing above it.

B Match the words with their meanings.

Words	Meanings
1 awake	a) sweet smell
2 perfume	b) sing in a delightful voice

- 3 Why did one corner of the garden still have winter? What happened there?

Lesson11: The Selfish Giant (4)

Key words : frightened stretch out knock down fling

A Continue reading the story.

The Giant felt sorry as he looked out. “How selfish I have been!” he said to himself. “Now I know why the spring would not come here.”

So he quickly went out into the garden. But when the children saw him they were so frightened that they all ran away, and the garden became winter again. Only the little boy did not run, for his eyes were so full of tears that he did not see the Giant coming. The giant quietly came behind him, took him gently in his hands and put him up into the tree. And the tree at once broke into blossom, and the birds came and sang on it. The little boy stretched out his two arms, flung them round the Giant’s neck and kissed him.

The other children saw this. They saw that the Giant was not wicked any longer. So they came running back. And with them came the spring.

“It’s your garden now, little children,” said the Giant. Then he took a great axe and knocked the wall down. And the people passing by found the Giant playing with the children in the most beautiful garden in the country.

Lesson 1: I like folk songs

Key words : chess photography fish cutlet classical music folk song pop music adore (v) to bloom (v) precious gem

A Play this game in pairs. Take turns asking and answering questions. Ask and answer as many questions as you can in five minutes to find similarities in your and your partner's likes. For each similar liking your pair will get one point. Add up your points when the game is over. The pair having the highest points is the winner. Use the following clue to play the game:

A: I like ice cream. And you?

B: I like ice cream too. (One point)

B: I like playing chess. And you?

A: I don't like playing chess. (No points)

B Read the dialogue between A and B silently. Underline the words that express liking/disliking. Then act out the dialogue in pairs.

A: Hello. How are you doing?

B: I'm OK. I've just finished a course on photography.

A: Great! Did you like the course?

B: Yes, I loved the course so much! You know, I like photography a lot. How about you? What sorts of things do you like?

C Now read about Kobita, a class 7 student of Sundarpur village. What does she tell about her likes/dislikes?

Hello, I am Kobita. I am a class 7 student of Sundarpur High School. I like listening to music in my free time. I like folk songs but I don't understand classical music that much. However, my father likes classical music very much. But he doesn't like pop music. He never watches pop musical programmes on TV. He says he hates them because they don't appeal to emotions. My favourite singer is Farida Parvin. I like her songs very much. She has a wonderful voice. I also like gardening. I have planted many flowers in my garden. When the flowers are in full bloom, I love to watch them. I'm very happy about the flowers that I grow. I just adore them!

D Ask and answer the questions in pairs.

- 1 Why doesn't Kobita like classical music?
- 2 What does Kobita's father think about pop music?
- 3 Who is Kobita's favourite singer? Why does she like her so much?
- 4 What does Kobita think about her garden?
- 5 What does the sentence "I just adore them!" mean?

There are one high school, three primary schools and one vocational training centre in this village. Kobita and her friends learn computer at this centre. There is a theatre club and a small library too. Kobita can borrow books from the library. She borrows books on history, poetry and children's classics. The theatre club stages plays regularly. Last month Kobita enjoyed the Mohua drama dance performed by the theatre club. The village has a bazar on the river side. This is a very noisy and dirty place. Kobita never goes to the bazar. The village roads are also narrow and dirty. Although there is electricity in Sundarpur, the villagers experience frequent load shedding in summer.

C Look at the food that Kobita usually eats at home. In pairs match the names of the food items given below with the pictures.

B: Then you love rain and hate washing clothes.

A: Yes.

B: And you dislike dry fish

A: No, I love it.

B Paul is a young volunteer of an international NGO in Bangladesh. He visits Sundarpur to talk to the villagers about arsenic poisoning. Read the passage to know about his visit.

Paul went to Sundarpur High School to meet the teachers and students there. He was warmly greeted by all. He quite enjoyed the green coconut drink that was served on his arrival. He gave a short lecture to the students and explained how they would fight against arsenic poisoning. Paul also answered the questions asked by some students. He liked most of the questions. He also took some pictures with the students. He always takes his camera with him. He loves photography.

As he was taking leave, all the students followed him up to the school gate. The teachers wanted to hire a rickshaw for him. He does not like riding rickshaws. In fact, he hates the idea of sitting idle while another person is pulling the rickshaw. So, he did not mind walking towards the local Union Council Office.

C In pairs, discuss the following questions.

- A Write five sentences on one piece of paper describing what you really like, don't really like etc but don't write your name. Your teacher will collect the pieces of paper from all students. He will shuffle and give them back to you all. When you have received the piece of paper written by some other student, read it and guess who could be the writer.
- B Read the article that Paul has written for the school magazine of Sundarpur High School.

We also like watching the little rabbits running around. We all like the park because we love being outdoors and feeling free.

But sometimes my father gets angry with us and does not allow us to go near the bush. He doesn't like his children going too far, out of his sight. I don't like sitting on the grass and doing nothing for hours. My sister is afraid of spiders. She hates them. Sometimes when we go too far away, my mother calls us back. She tells my sister that she has seen some spiders near the bush. I'm not afraid of spiders. But I don't like flies. I just can't bear with these little insects.

Learning outcomes

After we have studied this unit, we will be able to

- read and understand texts
- talk climate and environment
- ask and answer questions
- take part in role-plays and simulations
- write short guided and semi-guided sentences and passages

Lesson 1: Mother Earth in crisis

Key words : uncomfortable environment activist idle all day long climate shift (v) temperature climb (v) crisis survive (v) landscape

A Read the text and the conversation.

Samina is in class 7 and Arif in class 6. They both felt very uncomfortable the other day. It was just the beginning of March. And the day was very hot. In the small town of Sherpur, summer had come with all its heat and warmth. Samina and Arif had nothing much to do. While sitting idle on the veranda, they saw their uncle Anwar coming to them. Anwar works in an NGO called Save the Earth. Samina and Arif started talking with their uncle about weather and climate.

Anwar : Children, why are you sitting idle here? You look very unhappy!

Sabina : Uncle, it's so hot all day long.

Arif : And there is no electricity. We can't use fans.

Samina : We can't watch television either. Uncle, why is it so hot now?

Anwar : In fact, we've an early summer this year. It's been happening for the last four or five years. Seasons are shifting.

Arif : What's shifting, Uncle?

Anwar : Summer usually starts from April. But this year it has come in March. This moving from April to March is a shift or change.

Samina : Why do seasons shift, Uncle?

Anwar : Well! This is for climate change. And many things are happening on this earth due to climate change. For example, seasons are shifting, temperatures are climbing, and sea levels are rising. If things go on like this, our Mother Earth will be in danger.

Samina : Uncle, what will happen if the earth is in danger? How will we survive on this earth?

Anwar : Well..... I am going to give you a booklet now. Please read it and you'll know more about climate change.

Samina & Arif : Thank you, Uncle. We will certainly read it.

B Choose the right answer.1 Which of these is an example of climate change?

- b a windy day
- c a hot summer day
- d a sunny day

2 What does 'climbing' mean in the statement "temperatures are climbing"?

- a shifting
- b going up
- c being in crisis
- d surviving

3 If things go on like this.... . In this sentence 'go on' means

- a to go places
- b to change times
- c to walk fast
- d to continue

4 Anwar used the phrase 'our Mother Earth'. He used the phrase because

- a the earth gives birth to and takes care of us like a mother.
- b in some religions the earth is honoured as a mother.
- c the earth is mentioned as our mother by many scientists.
- d the earth is as peaceful as a mother.

5 How did Samina and Arif react to what Anwar said about climate change?

- a They showed no interest.
- b They became afraid of going out alone.
- c They wanted to know more about climate change.
- d They agreed to attend a lecture on 'climate change.

C Now look at the six pictures that Samina and Arif saw in the booklet. All these pictures are about the dangers caused by climate change. Choose a caption given in the box to match each picture.

D Discuss this question in pairs.

Which of the above dangers are you afraid of most? Why?

E Make a list of two other dangers of climate change that might occur in your locality.Lesson 2: The heating up of Earth!

Key words : heat up (v) responsible fuels oil coal pollution greenhouse carbon dioxide atmosphere

A The passage is taken from the booklet Mr Anwar gave to Arif and Sabina. Read the passage carefully.

The sun is getting hotter. It is also very old. It is about 4,500 million years old! The Earth's climate has been changing for all those years. But the climate is heating up much faster now. Humans and their machines are responsible for the rapid heating up of the Earth.

Almost all machines use fuels such as oil, gas or coal. All of them produce pollution. Much of this pollution contains a gas called carbon dioxide. It is this gas which pollutes the atmosphere.

B True or false. If false, give the correct information.

- 1) The Earth's climate has been changing for 4,500 million years.
- 2) Only machines are responsible for the Earths' getting hotter.
- 3) Coal is one kind of fuel.
- 4) Carbon dioxide gas pollutes the environment.
- 5) Now the sun is not as hot as it was ten years ago.

C Look at the five sentences describing the process of heating up of the Earth. Complete each sentence with a suitable word. The first one is done for you.

- 1) Humans uses _____ fuels _____ to run machines.
- 2) Machines burn fuels and _____ pollution.
- 3) Pollution contains _____ such as carbon dioxide.
- 4) Carbon dioxide makes the atmosphere _____.
- 5) The climate is getting _____ rapidly now.

D In pairs discusses which one of these activities warms up the atmosphere. Explain why you think so.

- 1 riding a bicycle
- 2 riding a car
- 3 walking
- 4 rowing a country boat
- 5 riding a mechanised ferry boat

Lesson 3 : The greenhouse effect

Key words : trap (v) freeze (v) planet roof shine (v)

escape (v) greenhouse global warming release (v)

A Samina and Arif read about greenhouse effect in the booklet. Read the passage to know what Samina and Arif have learnt so far.

A greenhouse is a house made of glass. It has glass walls and a glass roof. People grow vegetables and flowers and other plants in them. A greenhouse stays warm inside, even during winter. During the daylight hours, a greenhouse gets warmer and warmer and stays pretty warm at night too. This is because the heat received from the sun is trapped inside the greenhouse by the glass.

The Earth is also like a greenhouse. During the day Earth's surface warms up in the sunlight. At night, the surface cools, releasing the heat back into the air. But some of the heat is trapped by gases like carbon dioxide in the atmosphere. These gases, called greenhouse gases, work like the glass walls and the roof and keep the Earth warm. This is global warming and it is making the Earth a dangerous planet.

Unfortunately, we are making the earth too hot. We are using oil, gas and coal for running cars, buses, trains, planes, power stations and so on. These fuels have carbon in them. This carbon and other gases trap the heat in the atmosphere and do not allow the earth to cool down. As a result, the Earth gets hotter.

B In pairs, discuss the questions below and write answers to them.

1. What is a greenhouse and how does it work?
2. How is the earth's atmosphere similar to a greenhouse?
3. Recently, temperatures on Earth have been rising faster than normal. Why is this?

C Complete the following passage with the missing words given in the box. The first one is done for you.

gases	carbon dioxide	fuels	machines
greenhouse	climate	heat	energy

Carbon dioxide, one of the (1) greenhouse gases, exists naturally in the atmosphere. It is also produced when humans use fuels such as coal, oil and gas. Cars, (2) and factories all burn for (3), to make a car move or to make a machine to generate electricity. This adds more (4) to the atmosphere and makes a blanket of greenhouse gases surrounding the Earth. This means that the (5) `from the sun can not get back out into space. So, like a thick ` blanket keeps you warmer at night, the thick blanket of (6) is warming the earth up and changing our (7)

D Change the underlined words to talk about the increasing threats of global warming. Follow the examples below.

- 1 A: The sun is hot.
B: The sun is becoming hotter.
- 2 A: The effects of global warming will be bad.
B: The effects of global warming will be than what we can imagine.
- 3 A: The sun keeps the Earth warm during day time.
B: The greenhouse makes the Earth
- 4 A: The cyclones are powerful now.

- B: The cyclones will be in future.
- 5 A: Our environment is already polluted.
B: Carbon dioxide gas makes the environment
- 6 Summers come early due to season shift.
B: Summers may come in future.

Lesson 4: What happens next?

Key words : extreme, warm (v) overflow (v) melt (v) low-lying flood (v) emission disappear (v) drought species extinct (v) ocean outcome erosion

A Samina and Arif read another chapter of the booklet to know about the possible dangers of global warming. Below is a summary of what they have read. Read the passage silently.

What happens as a result of global warming? The ice on the Earth's surface is melting fast due to extreme heat. Oceans and seas are warming too. All the ice that melts will fill up the oceans and seas and they will overflow on land. Thus a huge area of land will go under water. Some of the best land for growing food is also the most low-lying. That means it will be flooded first. Even some big cities like London, Kolkata and Bangkok will get flooded. That means thousands of people will lose their houses and land and they will go hungry.

Moreover, as the earth's climate warms up, the weather gets more violent. Storms and cyclones will become more powerful. More areas will get drier and turn into deserts. There will be heavier rains too. So there will be more floods and river erosions.

B Look at the list of the outcomes (results or effects) of global warming. First, rank the outcomes according to their seriousness. Then tell a partner which of these may affect your life most seriously and why.

- Polar bears and penguins will disappear.
- Winters will be 10 degrees colder.
- Africa will become hotter and have more droughts.
- Cyclones and hurricanes will become more powerful.
- Diseases like skin cancers will increase.
- Many countries will have no drinking water.
- Countries such as the Maldives, Holland and Bangladesh will disappear under water.
- Wars will start between countries fighting over water.

C If the world becomes warmer, many species of birds and animals will disappear or become extinct. How would your life change if these creatures disappear? Write five sentences in your own words.

- D Role play. Partner A plays the role of a person who loves Earth and partner B plays the role of a car company dealer. First, read the role cards for both A and B. When you are ready, play the roles.

Partner A – The Earth lover

I believe that many species will disappear soon. If carbon dioxide emissions are not controlled, many fishes and animals will quickly become extinct. If we can not act now, it will be too late to save these species. Warmer seas and rivers will be dangerous for humans. So I believe that we must do something to save the environment now.

Partner B – A car company dealer

I am angry with the Earth lover who tells us that the world will die. I believe that millions of species have died over the years. It's natural. If a certain area gets hot, fishes and animals will travel to a cooler part of the world. I also believe that controlling carbon dioxide emissions will harm industries. Motor industries provide incomes and food to thousands of families.

Lesson 5: What happens in Bangladesh?

Key words : worrying prolonged adverse water logging landslide spell repetition crop salinity coastal displace deforestation

- A Samina and Arif are very upset to read about the effects of climate change. They are more curious to know what will happen in Bangladesh. Read the following text to know about this.

Bangladesh is already experiencing the adverse impacts of global warming and climate change. Summers are becoming hotter and the monsoon is irregular. There are untimely heavy rainfalls causing water logging and landslides. Among other impacts are frequent floods, river erosion, crop damage due to drought, prolonged cold spells, salinity of water in the coastal areas etc.

Climate change has already started bringing disasters to Bangladesh. We remember the damage caused by the Aila in 2009. Climate change victims are increasing in number every day. The number of families and villages that lose their homes permanently to rivers every year is one of the highest in Bangladesh. An increasing number of people are suffering damage or loss to their property and some time life due to disasters caused by climate change. Following the climate change, the river bank and coastal erosion are increasing at an alarming rate. It is estimated that a 45 centimetres rise of sea-level will flood almost 10.9 percent of our territory and will make 5.5 million people of our coastal regions homeless.

B Tick the best answer.

1. One outcome of climate change in Bangladesh is Lesson 6: What can we do?

Key words : lifestyle air-conditioning dairy products

Rechargeable keep off (v) tackle

A Samina and Arif now read about the things they can do to help stop global warming. Read the passage to know about what we can do.

It is easy to understand now that the global warming and climate change is caused by humans on earth. If we make least use of energy, the earth will be least polluted. The golden rule is, ‘Avoid machines as much as possible’. If your family has a car, use it less and walk to the shops. Walking and running are much more fun than sitting in a car. You may use bicycles too. You can save energy by changing your lifestyle. For example, you can often avoid the air-conditioning in summer and use hand fans instead.

You can also use solar energy. It is free and more environment friendly. You can use energy-saving bulbs in your room. If you make a garden, you can grow much of your own food. Did you know that if you eat fewer meat and dairy products, you can reduce greenhouse gas output? You can also save the environment by reducing, reusing and recycling the things you use. The most important idea is if you don't buy so many things in the first place, you don't need to reuse or recycle them.

You can also save energy by turning things off when you don't use them. People often leave lights, heating, air-conditioning, computers, TVs and gas burners on when they do not use them. Thus, they waste a lot of energy. Turning them off saves money too!

So, you can tackle climate change and live comfortably. There is plenty you can do. If we all work sensibly, we can save our lovely planet.
